Central Intelligence Agency
Office of the Deputy Director for Intelligence

3 August 1984

NOTE FOR: Charles A. Hawkins, Jr.
Assistant Deputy Under
Secretary of Defense
(Intelligence)

Our response is a little bureaucratic, but I don't know how you plan to use any substantive comments we might have on this document. I am not inclined to give a private citizen any help, either in a positive or a negative way, on a study of this sort. If the substantive comments are for your use, we can provide a more detailed response.

If you are concerned that publication of the document will damage US collection, you might want to ask NSA to review it. It seems to be a fairly comprehensive review of the open literature, but from our point of view its publication probably will cause more problems than it is worth.

Richard J. Kerr
Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence
